

EMPLOYEE RECOGNITIONS OCTOBER & NOVEMBER 2023

RETIREMENT

Todd Enoki, Crew Chief, Electrical, 21 Years (not attending)

ANNIVERSARIES

Alberto Rodriguez, Building Maintenance Tradesworker, 20 Years (not attending)

Mark Quiroz, Supervisor, Wastewater Reclamation for WRP 1, 2, and 4, 20 Years (not attending)

Twenty (20) years ago Mark Quiroz began his career at CVWD as an Operator in Training (OIT) for WRP 7. Little did he know that over the years he would grow into becoming the Supervisor for WRP 4. During his career, Mark has played various roles as a wastewater treatment operator and eventually transitioned to operating at WRP 4. As the supervisor for WRP 4, Mark is involved in ensuring the quality of water produced at the facility as well as providing input for future growth and expansion of the plant. As the valley continues to grow, the importance of WRP 4 becomes more prevalent to the sustainability of the area.

Outside of work, Mark is happily married to his wife Jessica and has two children, Miliana (16) and Mark Jr. (15). They enjoy spending time in cooler climates, and vacationing at their timeshare in Escondido.

David Lozano, Engineering Aide III, 20 Years

Since he started working at CVWD in 2003, David Lozano has been helping preserve historical records. David started his career as Engineering Aide I and is now an Engineering Aide III. His meticulous work and specialized talent has resulted in digitizing and migrating documents into FileNet, including engineering plans, legal rights for various CVWD sites and pipelines, agreements, permits, leases, and other documents. David has a positive attitude and is always willing to help when his peers need assistance using large format scanning and printing equipment.

Out of the office, David has many talents, including playing bass, guitar, and piano. David is also a licensed counselor and an ordained credentialed minister. He founded the Coachella Valley Church of God Seventh Day in Desert Hot Springs, where he remains senior pastor. David enjoys spending time with his wife Angela and their six children. Their children include sons Eldi, 23, Inaam, 19, and Pablo, 14. Daughters are Dorian, 25, Yasin, 17, and Jade, 15.
